Investment Philosophy

Seafarer believes that disciplined active management, based on fundamental analysis and applied over a long-term horizon, can enhance investment performance and mitigate portfolio volatility. Developing markets exhibit structural inefficiencies, primarily associated with liquidity premiums and asymmetric information, that can give rise to persistent mispricing of individual securities. Seafarer believes that bottom-up, fundamental research on individual companies is the best means by which to capitalize on inefficiencies in developing markets over long-term horizons.

Important Risks: An investment in the Funds involves risk, including possible loss of principal. International investing involves additional risks, including social and political instability, market and currency volatility, market illiquidity, and reduced regulation. Emerging markets are often more volatile than developed markets, and investing in emerging markets involves greater risks. Fixed income investments are subject to additional risks, including but not limited to interest rate, credit, and inflation risks. Value investments are subject to the risk that their intrinsic value may not be recognized by the broad market. An investment in the Funds should be considered a long-term investment.

Investment Objective

The Fund seeks to provide long-term capital appreciation.

Strategy

The Fund invests primarily in the securities of companies located in developing countries. The Fund invests in several asset classes including common stocks, preferred stocks, and fixed-income securities. The portfolio is comprised of securities identified through a bottom-up security selection process based on fundamental research.

The Fund seeks to produce a minimum long-term rate of return by investing in securities priced at a discount to their intrinsic value. As summarized in the following table, Seafarer has identified seven distinct sources of value in emerging markets that may give rise to viable opportunities for long-term, value-oriented investments.

Opportunity Set	Source of Value
Balance Sheet	Balance Sheet Liquidity	Cash or highly liquid assets undervalued by the market
	Breakup Value	Assets whose liquidation value exceeds their market capitalization
	Management Change	Assets that would become substantially more productive under a new owner/operator
	Deleveraging	Shift of cash flow accrual from debt holders to equity holders
	Asset Productivity	Cyclical downturn following a period of asset expansion
	Structural Shift	Shift to a lower growth regime, but still highly cash generative
Income Stmt. / Cash Flow	Segregated Market	Productive, cash-generative assets trading in an illiquid public market
