

Seafarer Capital Partners Announces Appointment of Paul Espinosa as Co-Chief Investment Officer

Espinosa joins Andrew Foster in Co-CIO Role as Seafarer Grows Team, Leadership

Larkspur, Calif., September 30, 2025—Seafarer Capital Partners has announced the appointment of Paul Espinosa as Co-Chief Investment Officer (Co-CIO) of the firm. Espinosa will join current Chief Investment Officer and firm co-founder Andrew Foster in the role, deepening the firm's leadership as it also grows its investment team.

Espinosa will expand his duties in the role of Co-CIO as he remains the Lead Portfolio Manager of the Seafarer Overseas Value Fund (SIVLX) and a Lead Portfolio Manager of the Seafarer Overseas Growth and Income Fund (SIGIX).

Espinosa joined Seafarer Capital Partners in 2014 and has led the development and management of the Seafarer Overseas Value Fund, which launched in 2016. His expertise in emerging markets value investing also contributes to the Seafarer Overseas Growth and Income Fund. Please see additional details on Espinosa's professional background at this link.

"I am pleased to announce the appointment of Paul as Co-CIO of Seafarer; he has earned the responsibility," said Andrew Foster, co-founder and Co-CIO of Seafarer Capital Partners. "Paul has proven himself as an investor, mentor and risk manager since joining Seafarer more than a decade ago."

Foster and Espinosa will work collaboratively as Co-CIOs, building on their long-established partnership as portfolio managers on Seafarer's investment strategies. As Co-CIO, Espinosa will be responsible for risk management, portfolio compliance and ethical controls. This is an extension of Espinosa's previous work in organizing the firm's risk management in a framework that allows for more effective management and administration.

Foster will retain his roles of Co-CIO, Lead Portfolio Manager of the Seafarer Overseas Growth and Income Fund, and Co-Manager of the Seafarer Overseas Value Fund. The appointment of Espinosa affirms Seafarer's strategy of building a long-term investment partnership through leadership development and succession planning. There will be no material changes to Seafarer's investment process, strategies, or risk management approach as a result of the new appointment.

Espinosa's promotion to the Co-CIO role showcases the depth of the firm's leadership, and also marks a period of growth for Seafarer as it has recently added new senior analysts to its investment team. For more information about Paul's appointment as Co-CIO, please see the Q&A on the Seafarer website.
