Investment Objective

The Fund seeks to provide long-term capital appreciation along with some current income; it also seeks to mitigate adverse volatility in returns.

Strategy

The Fund invests primarily in the securities of companies located in developing countries. The Fund invests in several asset classes including dividend-paying common stocks, preferred stocks, and fixed-income securities.

Investment Approach

The Fund seeks to offer investors a relatively stable means of participating in the growth of the developing world. It does so by investing in individual companies that the Adviser believes can generate sustained financial performance, typically manifest in the payment of steady (and sometimes growing) dividends over time.

The Adviser believes that selecting companies capable of paying steady (and sometimes growing) dividends can mitigate a portion of the risk associated with investing in the emerging markets, as dividends can act as an underappreciated signal for the quality of long-term corporate performance.

The Fund's holdings are selected through bottom-up, fundamental research on individual companies. The research process focuses on cash flow, capital structure and control parties.

Investment Philosophy

Seafarer believes that disciplined active management, based on fundamental analysis and applied over a long-term horizon, can enhance investment performance and mitigate portfolio volatility. Developing markets exhibit structural inefficiencies, primarily associated with liquidity premiums and asymmetric information, that can give rise to persistent mispricing of individual securities. Bottom-up, fundamental research on individual companies is the best means by which to capitalize on inefficiencies in developing markets over long-term horizons.
